UNIVERSITY SUBJECTS IN- VOLVED E.G.:	Jewish Religious Education	Catholic Theology	Orthodox Theology	Protestant Theology	Islamic Theology	Ethics/ Philosophy	Other subjects e.g.: Literature, Art or
PREPARATORY PHASE	The lecturer of the cooperating subjects agree on a common topic with relevance to the curriculum. Students can participate in this decision.
PHASE 1: Preparation of the topic in separate university lessons, e.g.:	Theory of God (from a Jewish perspective)	Theory of God (from a Catholic perspective)	Theory of God (from an Ortho- dox perspective)	Theory of God (from a Protes- tant perspective)	Theory of God (from an Islamic perspective)	Theory of God (from an ethics or philosophy per- spective)	Theory of God (e.g.: from the perspective of Literature, Art, or)
PHASE 2: Presentations &
PHASE 3: Discussion of the topic in mixed groups at workstations			→
		<
PHASE 4: REFLECTION • in mixed groups					~
(if desired,preparation of a short presentation for the plenary)  • Reflexion in the respective learner group from Phase 1
	Theory of God (from a Jewish perspective)	Theory of God (from a Catholic perspective)	Theory of God (from an Ortho- dox perspective)	Theory of God (from a Protes- tant perspective)	Theory of God (from an Islamic perspective)	Theory of God (from an ethics or philosophy per- spective)	Theory of God (e.g.: from the perspective of Literature, Art or

,Sharing Worldviews' in four phases with presentation phase and exchange phase as station work in mixed student groups. Each university event prepares a station on the topic from their respective worldview.