- Analyze the characteristics, duties, and relationships of angels.
- Evaluate the effects of believing in angels on human behavior.

Grade Level / Age

6-7 / 10-11 y

Duration

90 min

Preparation

- Prepare to play a song related to angels in classroom.
- Copy the song text for each student.
- Copy the text for each group.

Step-by-step description

- Distribute students the 'Angels' worksheet (M1) and explain that they need to fill it out according to the song they will listen.
- Distribute the song text (M2) to the students, play the song and sing with the pupils.
- Ask students to fill the worksheet and share the findings with the classroom.
- Divide the students into groups of 4-5 students to work together and present their works.
- Distribute the M3 to the groups and explain it. These are the verses from Quran on the definition of angels.
- Ask students to read the verses and fill out M4.
- Ask each group (when they finish) to share their work in the plenary classroom within a specific time frame.
- Read the provided clues (M5) for each archangel to the students.
- Ask students to write down or draw which archangel they think the clues describe.
- Verify the correct answers together and discuss the characteristics of each archangel in the class.
- Guide and ask students to reflect on the work of each group with an active discussion.

Tips for teachers

• The texts in the lesson plan aims to work as a starting point for students to think about the subject. They also work as a base for students' presentation for Encounter Day.

[M3] Text

 The belief in Angels (al-Mala'kah) is the second article of faith in Islam. Allah says: The Messenger believes in what has been revealed to him from his load, and so do the believers. All believe in Allah, His Angels and His Messengers. (Qur'an 2:285) Those who are before him are not scornful of worshipping Him, nor do they tire or get bared. They glorify Him night and Day: they do not halt. (Qur'an 2:19:20) They are honoured servants, who do not precede Him in speech, and they act according to His command. He knows what is ahead of them, and they do not intercede, except for those whom He approves. (Qur'an 2:265-27) Praise be to Allah, the Originator of the Heavens and the Carth, the creator of angels having wings - two, three and four." (Qur'an 35:1) Those who do not believe in the Hereafter, surely name the angels with female names." (Qur'an 5:32?) Or has He (Allah) taken, out of that which He created, daughters, and honoured you with sons ? And, when one of them receives tidings of that which He sets up as a likeness to Allah. To be females. Uld they withese their areaton? Their testimony shall be recorded, and they will be asked. (Qur'an 4:316,17,19) And verily, there come our Messengers to brahim with glod tidings. They said 'salam' (Le y and 1:69:63) Then we sent to her our Spirit (angel Dibreel) and he appeared before her in the form of a mon in all respects (Qur'an 19:17-21) And there is not any among us, except that has a known position. 	√ 253335000000000000000000000000000000000
